HOLISTIC HUMAN AI COLLABORATION (HAICOLA)

The FAITH Principle

	Principles	Meaning
F	Fairness	AI must be designed and used fairly for all parties, without systemic bias.
A	Accountability and Accuracy	AI users and creators are responsible for AI results and must ensure data accuracy.
I	Integrity and Inclusiveness	AI must support academic honesty and be accessible to all groups.
T	Transparency	The process of AI use and decision-making must be clear and traceable.
H	Human-Centered	AI must strengthen the role of humans, not replace them, and uphold human values.

FAITH is BINUS' Principles in using AI for teaching, learning and assessment.

FAITH is our commitment that AI is used correctly, ethically, and in a human-centric way in our institution.

Types of Assessment Based on AI Use

Types	Descriptions	Sample Use
1 – Integrated	AI use is part of the grading rubric and must be used according to the lecturer's instructions. The type of AI, usage stages, and assessed aspects must be explicitly stated in the task description. Students may not use AI applications other than those required and must submit a declaration form.	AI-based final project, e.g., creating prompts, AI ethics evaluation, recommendation systems.
2 – Partial	Students may use AI for up to 50% of the work process, including structure, idea development, or visualization. Usage must follow the course guidelines. Students must submit an AI use declaration form.	Video production, reflective vlog, exploratory essay, design work, final project.
3 - Flexible	AI use in task creation is not regulated because it does not affect the assessed aspects of the task. If AI is used, students must submit a declaration	Oral exams, venture pitching, class discussions, debates.
4 – Limited	AI may only be used in the early stages (e.g., brainstorming or outlining) but not in final content writing or conclusions. Example: brainstorming topic ideas but not writing the final version. Students must submit an AI use declaration form.	Proposal writing, prototype-generating projects.
5 - Independent	Students must complete the task without any AI assistance. All work must be entirely original. No declaration is required because AI use is strictly prohibited. Violations will be treated as academic integrity breaches.	Written exams.
